'personal payment account' means any personal account (sole or joint) that is used primarily for the execution of day to day payment transactions which has at least the following features: the account allows you to (a) place funds, (b) withdraw cash within the European Union and (c) make and receive payment transactions within the European Union including: (i) direct debits, (ii) payment card transactions including online payments, (iii) credit transfers (including standing orders) at terminals and counters of your credit institution where available and via online banking. Current Accounts are usually personal payment accounts.

Tax Reporting – Customer Information Notice

Financial institutions in Ireland are required under legislation to seek answers to certain questions for the purpose of identifying those accounts, the details of which are reportable to Irish Revenue who may exchange these details with other tax authorities in relevant jurisdiction(s) and may include the following: name, address, tax identification number (TIN/TRN), date of birth, place of birth (where present in our records), account number of each of your accounts, account balance or value at year end of each of your accounts and payments made with respect to each of your accounts during the calendar year. This legislation incorporates the United States Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) and the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Common Reporting Standard (CRS).

All relevant sections of this form must be completed. If customers do not provide all of the information requested, we may not be able to proceed with opening the new account until the relevant information is provided.

Please note that AIB is unable to offer tax advice. For tax related questions and/or further information please contact your professional tax advisor or Irish Revenue at <https://www.revenue.ie/en/companies-and-charities/international-tax/aeoi/index.aspx>.

Customers must promptly advise AIB if their tax residence changes.

We are also required to submit an annual return of interest to Revenue under the Return of Payments (Banks, Building Societies, Credit Unions and Savings Banks) Regulations 2008. For the purposes of this return we may be obliged to seek the collection and verification of a Tax Reference Number (also known as PPSN) from customers when opening a new bank account. This number will be included in the annual return of interest to Revenue.

Additional information

(1) Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit

Your deposit is covered by a statutory deposit guarantee scheme. If insolvency should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to €100,000.

(2) General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the DGS. This repayment covers at maximum €100,000 per person per credit institution. This means that all eligible deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with €90,000 and a current account with €20,000, he or she will only be repaid €100,000.

(3) Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of €100,000 applies to each depositor. However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of €100,000.

(4) Reimbursement

The responsible deposit guarantee scheme is:

Deposit Guarantee Scheme, Central Bank of Ireland, New Wapping Street, North Wall Quay, Dublin 1.

Tel: 01-224 5800.

Email: info@depositguarantee.ie.

Website: www.depositguarantee.ie.

It will repay your eligible deposits (up to €100,000) within 7 working days, save where specific exceptions apply.

Where the repayable amount cannot be made available within seven working days depositors will be given access to an appropriate amount of their covered deposits to cover the cost of living within five working days of a request. Access to the appropriate amount will only be made on the basis of data provided by the credit institution. If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the deposit guarantee scheme.

(5) Temporary high balances

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as "temporary high balances" are protected above €100,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits relating to certain events which include:

- certain transactions relating to the purchase, sale or equity release by the depositor in relation to a private residential property;
- sums paid to the depositor in respect of insurance benefits, personal injuries, disability and incapacity benefits, wrongful conviction, unfair dismissal, redundancy, and retirement benefits;
- the depositor's marriage, judicial separation, dissolution of civil partnership, and divorce;
- sums paid to the depositor in respect of benefits payable on death; claims for compensation in respect of a person's death or a legacy or distribution from the estate of a deceased person.

More information can be obtained at www.depositguarantee.ie

(6) Exclusions

A deposit is excluded from protection if:

- The depositor and any beneficial owner of the deposit have never been identified in accordance with money laundering requirements.
 - The deposit arises out of transactions in connection with which there has been a criminal conviction for money laundering.
 - It is a deposit made by a depositor which is one of the following:
 - credit institution
 - financial institution
 - investment firm
 - insurance undertaking
 - reinsurance undertaking
 - collective investment undertaking
 - pension or retirement fund (Deposits by Small Self Administered Pension Schemes are not excluded)
 - public authority
- Further information about exclusions can be obtained at www.depositguarantee.ie

Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your credit institution will also inform you on request whether certain products are covered or not. If deposits are eligible, the credit institution shall also confirm this on the statement of account.
