4. Organisations must be a registered charity in Ireland, Northern Ireland, Scotland, Wales or England to be eligible for receipt of funding.
5. The Promoter accepts no responsibility for entries that are incomplete, illegible or fail to be redeemed by the relevant closing date for any reason
6. If a charity has been nominated and declared an awardee and AIB discovers before the distribution of the funds that for any reason under these Terms and Conditions, or otherwise, an awardee is ineligible to enter the Fund or if the entry should have been declared invalid, AIB reserves the right to determine that an awardee is disqualified.
7. Nominations for the following organisations and projects are excluded:

- a. Organisations that relate to religious or political activities
 - b. Non-charitable activities
 - c. Animal charities where animals are the primary beneficiaries (Exceptions include projects that involve animals where the primary beneficiaries are individuals i.e., Autism assistance dogs or similar examples.)
 - d. Nominations that involve covering core costs such as rent, salaries etc, costs to cover trips abroad, general running or ongoing costs of an organisation
 - e. Retrospective funding (work that has already taken place)
 - f. Nominations for projects with the purpose of promoting sport/ competitive sport
8. All nominated charities are subject to due diligence review and the AML vetting process, and AIB reserves the right to monitor beneficiaries' use of funds.
 9. No same organisation will be eligible to receive funding for a period of three years following receipt of a grant of funding.
 10. AIB's current core charity partners cannot be nominated for this Fund. Visit aib.ie/community to see the current list of core partners.
 11. Nominations received after the closing date will not be accepted.
 12. Personal contact details included on the nomination forms will be held for the duration of the nomination process and will not be used for any purpose other than accepting nominations for the charity partner. Once the process is concluded and a charity partner is awarded, all data collected via the forms will be deleted. For further information on how AIB processes personal data, your rights in relation to your personal data and the contact details of AIB's Data Protection Officer, see AIB's Data Protection Notice which is available on AIB's website.
 13. No purchase of any product is required to enter.
 14. Closing date for receipt of nominations is 19 June 2026 at 5PM.
 15. AIB can extend or withdraw the process period at any time or change any aspect of the Fund at any stage without prior notice.
 16. The Reviewing panel's decision is final and binding on entrants and no correspondence will be entered into. Entrants acknowledge that there is no right of appeal and they will not have recourse to AIB's complaints handling procedures.
 17. The funds received by the top six awardees in Greater Dublin, Rest of Leinster, Munster, Connacht and Ulster (ROI) is €20,000. In the Northern Ireland & Great Britain region, there will be seven awardees who will each receive £15,000.
 18. For 2026, an additional amount of €60,000 will be made available to the Fund to celebrate AIB's 60th anniversary this year. This additional funding will be allocated equally across the six regions, with €10,000 allocated to each region. In each region, this additional allocation will be awarded to one additional awardee, who will receive €10,000. Each such additional awardee will be subject to the same terms and conditions that apply to the top awardees.
 19. Funding received by the charities must impact the region in which they have been nominated.
 20. The awardee may be required to take part in publicity such as photography for use on social media or on the branch screens etc.
 21. By entering an organisation to this Fund, entrants are deemed to have accepted these terms and conditions.
 22. Following the reviewing process for the final list of charities nominated, AIB reserves the right to withdraw charities on the basis of additional detail/information required to ensure they are aligned to the Fund's terms and conditions.

23. These terms and conditions are governed by the Laws of Ireland and by entering an organisation to this Fund you are under the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Ireland should any dispute arise as a result of taking part.
24. AIB reserves the right to amend, withdraw, terminate the process or alter the specification of the Fund without prior notice.
25. The Promoter reserves the right to vary, cancel or modify the process and/or the Terms and Conditions at any time and for whatever reason and/or amend the process (and/or any related funds) in whole or in part at any time due to unforeseen circumstances. The Promoter is also entitled to vary the funds if, due to unforeseen circumstances it becomes impossible to provide the funds as described or in its opinion, it would be inappropriate in any way.
26. During the process, any request or complaint concerning the process and Terms and Conditions may be sent to 10 Molesworth Street, Dublin 2. The Promoter will not engage in any correspondence related to the selection of any awardee
27. All entrants must also agree to AIB's Terms and Conditions Policy as outlined here: AIB Terms and Conditions Policy
