

AIB Online Notice Deposit 7

Important Information about your Distance Contract

When you open a savings account online, we need to give you some information about the account to comply with the rules regarding Distance Marketing of Consumer Financial Services. We want to make sure you understand the account and can make an informed decision.

About Us

We are Allied Irish Banks, p.l.c. whose principal business is the provision of financial services. Our registered office is at 10 Molesworth Street, Dublin 2, D02 R126, (01) 6600311. You can find further ways to contact us at www.aib.ie/contact-details

We're registered at the Companies Registration Office, Dublin. Our registered number is 24173 and our VAT number is IE8E86432H.

We're regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland under reference C21174. Their details are as follows;

PO Box 559, New Wapping Street, North Wall Quay, Dublin 1, D01 F7X3, and www.centralbank.ie

About Your Account

- You can open and use the account through AIB Online Banking.
- You can put up to €1,000,000 into the account.
- If you want to take money out you must serve at least 7 days' notice. Withdrawal limits may apply depending on the channel you use.
- We calculate interest daily and pay it twice a year, in April and October.
- There are no fees for this account, other service charges may apply. You can find details on these under 'Service Charges' in 'A guide to fees and charges for Personal Accounts'.

Tax on Interest Earned on Your Account

- We will deduct Deposit Interest Retention Tax (DIRT) at the prevailing rate from all interest earned, unless you are entitled to exemption from DIRT, and we will pay this directly to the Revenue Commissioners.
- To the extent that DIRT has been deducted there is no further liability to Irish income tax, but you may be subject to PRSI. Deposit interest is not liable to the Universal Social Charge.
- The Bank will deduct DIRT from the accounts of non-residents unless a fully completed non-resident declaration form is held by the Bank and a minimum balance of €12,500 is maintained at all times in each account maintained by the non-resident.
- If you or your spouse/civil partner are aged 65 or over in the current tax year, or are permanently incapacitated, and you are exempt from income tax, you may apply to have the interest on the account paid without deduction of DIRT.

Your Right to Withdraw (Cooling-off)

If you open this account online and decide it isn't right for you, you can cancel your agreement and close the account within 14 days from the day you open it.

You can withdraw and close the account by:

- Using Online Banking through the AIB Mobile app and AIB Internet Banking
- Using a self-service kiosk in an AIB branch.

We'll confirm receipt of your request by email.

You can also cancel your agreement by visiting or writing to an AIB branch.

If you cancel and close the account we'll pay you interest on the money you have put into your account up to the date you take it out.

If you choose not to use your right of withdrawal, the terms of your agreement will continue to apply.

Closing Your Account

No matter how your account was opened with us, you always have the right to close your account at any time, subject to you serving the notice period. This is separate from the cooling off period.

We may close your account by giving you one month's notice in line with the notice period and we can use any money in your account to repay any money you owe us.

In some situations, we may close your account immediately or with less notice. You can find details of these situations in the 'Closure of your Account' section of the terms and conditions.

General Information

- Subject to the rest of this 'General Information' section, your agreement and any obligations arising out of or in connection with it are governed by the laws of Ireland. By entering into your agreement, you agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Irish courts in relation to any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with your agreement as set out in our terms and conditions. We will still be allowed to take proceedings before any other court in a different jurisdiction where we are permitted to do so under applicable law.
- If you're a consumer, the jurisdiction of the Irish courts will be non-exclusive, and nothing in this 'General Information' section or in your agreement will affect any right to defend proceedings or take proceedings to enforce your consumer protection rights in Ireland or in the country in which you live.
- Your agreement, all information and our communication to you, will be in English.
- We can provide you with a copy of this information about your distance contract in electronic or paper form or a copy in a larger print if you contact us to request it.
- If we ask you to do so, you agree to print or download any documents we provide to you in electronic form.
